BACKGROUND

I work across a range of genres and platforms, creating content for the likes of Netflix, BBC and UniLad, on zoom or in the room!

I began my TV career as a researcher on ITV's This Morning before joining Two Four. I then moved to North America to produce talk shows for Warner Brothers.

I went on to work as a freelance showrunner/series producer, with expertise in series development, launches and fixes.

Working under my production label, Fact & Friction, indies now hire me to shape up show concepts from their initial outlines. I am a "go to" for cost-effective creative guidance and support, working directly with in-house teams or independently. I have good US network contacts.

I create pitch decks, show bibles, pilots and other presentations, establishing the structure and style of new factual entertainment, reality and doc-series for TV and Digital.

I also create my own formats, and especially like shows that have Heart, Humour and Hope, and have had ideas placed in paid development or greenlit for series.

I am a British Citizen and a Canadian Citizen. I possess an O-1 visa for the US, allowing me to continue to "cross the pond" for development and production projects.

I am a long-serving Juror for the International Emmys, New York, and recently the Canadian Screen Awards and British Royal TV Society Awards. I am a member of the Non-Fiction Authors' Association. I am a TED Talk inline Discussion Host.

In 2021, I was commissioned to create 10 short films about the art of "unscripted" television, for Toronto Film School.

Screen Yorkshire and Channel 4 invite me to run story development workshops at York University and Leeds Trinity University.

"I worked with Ron on several successful original series and big formats when I was a network executive for 13 years. Ron is passionate about every project he works on and is so talented in heightening the entertainment value of each show. These days, we collaborate on projects as co-producers and I'm continuously wowed by Ron's writing abilities and his creativity in developing new show concepts & formats. To top it off, he's a decent person with integrity... and big belly laughs.
A joy and a pleasure to work along side Ron."
